

Why take up a job like everyone else, when you're not everyone else?

EY is where 250.000 of the very finest professionals work out of 700 offices in over 150 countries. You could join them in taking on some of the world's steepest challenges.

balticcareers.ey.com - Join us!

The better the question. The better the answer.
The better the world works.

EY
Building a better working world

Wanted: Advisory Intern/ Consultant

You will become a part of an experienced business efficiency improvement team that works to optimise the financial goals or management systems of companies of various industries and scale. You will participate in developing solutions for improving financial and management processes, assist in perfecting organisational structures and management strategies, learn to analyse business processes and models, find weaknesses and things to improve, as well as be able to assess the efficiency of outsourcing for a client.

Skills and attributes for success:

- Advanced analytical thinking
- Good knowledge of MS and Power Point
- Knowledge of English at no lower than upper-intermediate level

To qualify for the role you must have:

- Graduates and last year students
- Readiness to work full-time

Ideally, you'll also have:

- Experience with databases
- Completed project examples

What working at EY offers:

EY provides an opportunity for you to stay as a professional consultant after your internship. EY provides its employees with a comprehensive compensation package which includes additional medical insurance, paid week of studies, the opportunity to engage in professional training, as well as a whole number of specialised programmes designed to support employees' physical and social well-being. EY provides a transparent career ladder, growth and development.

<http://balticcareers.ey.com/> - Join us.

EY is a global professional services organization providing advisory, assurance, tax and transaction services. We are committed to doing our part in building a better working world for our people, our clients and our communities. And we are united by our shared values and a dedication to delivering exceptional client service