

Hollister Incorporated is an independent, employee-owned company that develops, manufactures, and markets products for ostomy care, continence care, and wound care and develops educational support for patients and healthcare professionals. We have been in business for more than 95 years. Our products are sold in more than 90 countries and we have manufacturing and distribution centers on three continents. At Hollister Incorporated, we are passionate about the work we do, and we are committed to making life more rewarding and dignified for our Associates and for the people who use our products and services. A career at Hollister Incorporated can take many paths, all of them leading to rewarding opportunities.

QUALITY ASSURANCE ENGINEER

Responsibilities:

Responsibilities will include supporting the plant manufacturing facility in assuring quality products by:

- meeting all regulatory compliance requirements of the Quality System
- conducting validation studies
- performing process capability studies
- determining process improvements
- instituting corrective action for process & Quality System deficiencies
- partnering with operations in achieving both plant Global Quality Management objectives compatible with Hollister's Mission and Vision

Requirements:

- 2- 5 years of experience in Quality engineering positions in medical device, pharmaceutical, biotechnological, food or related industries (including performing validation studies)
- Degree in Engineering/Math/Natural Sciences/Computer Science or similar
- Ability to contribute to cross functional teams
- Ability to travel ~50% of time in the first year
- Very good English language skills

Company offer:

- Professional development in new established manufacturing facility in Kaunas
- Opportunity to become a part of a reputable company and join their unique culture
- Attractive remuneration package

To apply for this position please send your CV in English to karjera@hollister.com or call for more details +37061313114